

Action Taken by the UVI Board of Trustees

Development process for a Medical School at the University of the Virgin Islands

The board unanimously authorized the President to commence with the development process for a medical school at the University of the Virgin Islands.

The Board of Trustees, at its Special Meeting of April 19, 2014, voted unanimously on the above matter.