

OFFICE OF INTERNAL AUDIT

Hotline

The University Hotline is a mechanism by which members of the University community or any other individual can bring forward a good-faith concern regarding an allegation of suspected wrongdoing, without fear of retaliation, and to have that concern addressed by an independent reviewer.

You can contact the University Hotline by:

- Placing a note in the lockbox outside of the Office of Internal Audit – ACC Room 223
- Calling the University Hotline at 340.693.1576
- Calling the Internal Auditor at 340.693.1218
- Mailing an interoffice note to the Internal Auditor – ACC Room 223
- Stopping by the Office of Internal Audit – ACC Room 223

VOICE YOUR CONCERNS ABOUT

Harassment Intimidation
Retaliation
Discrimination

Fraud
Waste
Abuse

Theft of University Assets

Misuse of Federal Grant or Sponsored Research Funds

Falsification of Time Sheets or Other
University Records

Bribes or Kickbacks

Gifts from Vendors

Inappropriate Relationship between a
Manager and a Subordinate

Purchase of Personal Items
with University Funds

Demonstrate your commitment to upholding a workforce that maintains its integrity and prides itself on an ethical culture and environment. Step up and do the right thing. Voice your concerns today.